

Access to Network

Being in TEC community gives you access to a network of like-minded people and experts in your fields

Access to Funding

TEC helps you access cash grants, business loans, investment funds, as well as improving your readiness level for funding.

Access to Market

TEC helps you access your target market through its local and regional partners.

Access to Mentors

TEC can match you with expert mentors from your fields to help you build your startup more efficiently. Our mentors are usually successful entrepreneurs or senior professionals in multinational companies

Media Exposure

TEC helps your startup get exposed through our local and regional media partners

Priority Access to TEC Programs & Workshops

Being a TEC member gives you a priority access to TEC events, programs and workshops

Access to Human Capital

Struggling to find the talented people join your startup? we help you find the right people through our programs, community events, direct outreach or TEC platform

Access to Projects

TEC helps you access projects in software and hardware development, design, animation as well as digital marketing and social media among others

Convert to Entrepreneurs

If you have the will and all what it takes to start your own business, TEC helps you start by providing you with business tools and knowledge you need, to finally create your dream idea and turn it into a business

Access to Network

Being in TEC community gives you access to a network of like-minded people and experts in your fields

Personal Exposure

TEC helps you get recognized and exposed through our corporate and startups network in addition to building your personal brand

Give back to the community

Share your knowledge with young entrepreneurs and contribute to the creation of startups in Lebanon